

For every leader there are a few defining moments - those times which in retrospect change the course of their ministry and shape who they are. This is one of those times.

>> About the Institute

The objective at Caleb Leadership institute is to equip leaders to multiply ministry through mobilising and equipping the laity.

Our leadership training courses are designed for experienced church and para-church staff, including pastors, youth ministers, Christian education directors and other leaders in ministry.

The training will be spent in interaction, application, and skill development - not merely listening to lectures. You will have the time to assess where you are, determine where you want to be, and work on the skills and plans to take you there.

Transforming ministries flow out of transformed leaders. If you want to arrive at a new destination in ministry, you must leave the well-worn path you've been travelling and venture out into new territory. Caleb Leadership Institute will help take you there.

"I would recommend the Caleb course because it stretches the mind and includes lots of practice time. it teaches tangible, logical, yet expansive methods of structuring organisations, empowering individuals to change themselves and then to change their organisation."
- Ian Orton, UK

"One of the best leadership courses that I have ever attended. I wish this had been available to me twenty years ago."
- Rev Brian Walker, New Zealand
"I wish I had taken the Caleb course years earlier. After years of managing intuitively, I now feel that I have at my fingertips the skills and confidence to train and build a leadership team... You will learn the art of building a high trust culture, empowering and enabling the members of your team to thrive in a changing world. The secret of this course is it's synthesis of theory with practice. I don't know of any other course available in Australia which has the potential to change your entire ministry."

- Dr Roger Lang, Australia
