The event will be judged on the basis of objective and subjective criteria by a panel of 3 consisting of a songwriter, a theologian and a youth advisor.

Entries must fit into one of the following three categories:

Adult Oriented Congregational Song

Evangelistically Oriented Song

All entries will be considered for any categories they may apply to.

Entries must be postmarked by the closing date of 30th April 2001.

The decision of the judging panel will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

The competition is open to all songs by all eligible songwriters, regardless of whether they are published or not.

In the event of a published song being eligible for associated recording projects, eligibility will be subject to negotiation of favourable terms with the copyright owner.

Entry Material will not be returned to the entrant.

Material will not be used, reworked or distributed without the written consent of the copyright owner.

Judging Criteria

All songs will be judged by a panel of three people using scorecards rating a mixture of objective and subjective criteria. These criteria are listed below. In the event of a tie, the panel will vote for the tied songs using a proportional voting system. In the event of a further tie, the Chairperson will have the deciding vote. Songs will be judged on the merit of the song, not on the quality of the recording, though we encourage you to do the best recording you can. Pay particular attention to the vocals, and get the best singer you can.
